if it is a variation of sodium fluoride, which is a toxic industry waste by-product, it is poison, and most definitely a problem. if a class of creditors (other than a class consisting of equity claims) does not approve the plan, the plan is not binding on the creditors within that class. you can also start to see the individual ink dots, or at least the grain effect, as well. with advanced men’s institute, the focus is only on men.