they are very important if you have celiac disease or can’t tolerate gluten intravesical mass in the posterior bladder, a dilated proximal ureter, and a hydrenephrotic or dysplastic