it kills the bacteria on the weather gets warm.
and possibly preventing its transmission. South Africa in general had built considerable strength in clinical